Hispanic Citizens Academy Graduation

The Las Vegas Metropolitan Police Department is pleased to announce the graduation of the first ever Hispanic Citizens Academy. The Hispanic Citizens Academy is similar to the Citizens Academy which has been offered to the community since 1991.

The graduation ceremony will be held on Tuesday, October 30, 2007, @ 6:00 p.m. at the Roy Martin Middle School Gym located at 2800 E. Stewart Avenue.(The Gym is located off of 28th Street south of the intersection of 28th Street and Stewart Avenue.)

The graduates include community business owners, several married couples, and employees in the local service industry.

The guest speaker for the graduation ceremony will be Deputy Chief Jim Owens. A total of 52 Spanish Speaking citizens will be receiving their graduation certificates attesting the successful completion of the 8 week academy.
