Metro Promotes Holiday Safety

Don't let criminals steal your holiday spirit! We're entering the season when shoppers carry more cash and credit cards. They also tend to have a more easy-going attitude. Most people call it good cheer. Criminals call it complacency.

Metro invites citizens to learn how to protect themselves from holiday crime. During the November 3rd First Tuesday program, Metro representatives will discuss topics such as shopping safety, parking safety, and how to protect your home while traveling.

On the first Tuesday of every month, each LVMPD Area Command hosts a "First Tuesday" program for the public. The First Tuesday programs always start at 7:00 p.m. and include a free lecture about a crime prevention topic. This is a great opportunity for people to get informed and meet the officers who police their neighborhood.
