LVMPD EMPLOYEES TO PROVIDE THANKSGIVING DINNER TO LAS VEGAS FAMILIES IN NEED

Monday morning November 23, 2009 Metro officers will be delivering Thanksgiving baskets to between 350-400 families in need around the Las Vegas valley. Employees throughout the department donated money and all the fixings to provide less fortunate families with a traditional Thanksgiving dinner.

Monday morning, starting at 6:00 a.m. employees will begin assembling the food baskets to be delivered to families. Interested media can get video footage or photos of the baskets being assembled by metro employees in front of the Metro Communications building located at 4591 W. Russell (corner of Russell and Cameron.) Officers will begin delivering the baskets to homes starting at approximately 10:00 a.m. Monday morning.

The turkey drive is an annual event organized by employees in the Communications Bureau. For further information, please contact Michelle Wilson at 828-7110.
