METRO SEEKS PUBLIC'S ASSISTANCE IN IDENTIFYING POSSIBLE BURGLARY SUSPECT

The Las Vegas Metropolitan Police Department's Northeast Area Command Property Crime Detectives are requesting the public's assistance in identifying a possible burglary suspect.

The suspect is female. She approaches potential victims pushing a stroller with a small male child between the ages of 1 and 3 and asks the victim if they are available to babysit. She is able to get information from her victims about their schedules and times they are away from their homes. The female then leaves and the victim's residence is burglarized within a short period of time. The suspect is described as a Hispanic female, 20-30 years of age, 5'-5'3" heavy set and gives her name as Daisy.

Detective Munoz is the lead investigator on this case. He will be available for the media today, January 6th, outside North East Area Command located at 831 N Mojave from 1:00 to 3:00 p.m..

Anyone who has information on this suspect or believes they have been a victim of this suspect they are encouraged to contact Detective Munoz at 828-7355. Anyone wanting to remain anonymous can call Crime Stoppers at 385-5555.
