Metro and Clark County to Provide Resources for Safe Summer Fun

The school year is almost over and Metro is encouraging parents to start planning summer activities for their children.

On Thursday, May 6, 2010, Metro's Enterprise Area Command, numerous County agencies, and County Commissioner Susan Brager will present Summer Fun and Safety Night. The event will take place at Desert Breeze Community Center, 8275 Spring Mountain Road, from 6:00 p.m. – 8:00 p.m.

This event is intended to provide parents with information on a variety of summer activities for their children. There will be numerous hands-on demonstrations, as well as information about local summer camps, programs, and activities.

Organizations providing information at the event are: Clark County Parks and Recreation, Boys & Girls Club of Las Vegas, Opportunity Village, Nevada PEP, S.A.F.E. House, Fencing Academy of Nevada, Las Vegas Robotics Camp, Mad Science of Las Vegas, Invent Now Kids, and Kempo Self Defense Institute. There will also be presentations on crime prevention, personal safety and water safety.

WingStop Restaurants will provide food at the event (while supplies last).

Please come out to meet those who help keep our community safe.
