Undercover Vice Operation Results in Multiple Arrests

An undercover operation conducted on the night of April 10, 2021 by members of the Southern Nevada Human Trafficking Task Force resulted in five prostitution-related arrests.

Detectives arrested Daryl Williams, 24; Jarell Jones, 38; Semaj Spencer, 26; and Tramell Huff, 47, for pandering. Detectives also arrested Patrick Stauffenberuff, 22, for loitering for prostitution and obstructing a public officer. All five were booked into the Clark County Detention Center. Their booking photos accompany this release.

The Southern Nevada Human Trafficking Task Force is led by the FBI and includes detectives from the LVMPD. "As an agency and task force, we are committed to bringing justice on those who prey upon our vulnerable population," said LVMPD Vice Lieutenant William Matchko. "Through overt and covert operations, the Southern Nevada Human Trafficking Task Force will continue the battle against all forms of human trafficking."
